DEDICATION

We, the class of 1964, would like to dedicate this product of our industry and talent to the gentleman who has contributed in so many ways to making our high school years so rewarding and memorable. Thank you, Mr. Hill.

1964

FOREWORD

For the past four years each member of the class of 1964 has been doing a different thing. Some were preparing themselves, others were finding themselves, while for others, the four high school years have been the final "polishing" of their cultural and social well-being. No matter what stock phrase we use to explain our attitude towards high school, it cannot be denied that we will leave it with many vivid and long-lasting memories.

It is the purpose of the 1964 Exodus to record this part of our lives, in the most effective way possible.

To the parents and teachers who have provided for us during these last years we say those small words -- Thank you.

AGNES WHEELER "Aggie"
Likes snowy mornings, Marsha's good humor, the world in general, but dislikes Khushchev and late telephone calls. Haunts: Bonnie's house. Favorite foods: french fries, lobster, shrimp, chicken. Favorite songs: songs by Roy Orbinson. Most content when laughing. Suppressed desire: to overthrow Khrushchev's regime and set up a democratic government.
